PROSPECTUS
OF THE
ALABAMA STATE INTELLIGENCER.
A Political newspaper published at Tuscaloosa, BY CORNELIUS C. BALDWIN.
In politics the Intelligencer is decidedly Whig and advocates the establishment of a carefully guarded and well organized National Bank. It is printed on a large imperial sheet, twice a week during the session of the Legislature, and once a week during the remainder of the year, and will furnish as full a report as can be given of the proceedings of the Legislature and of Congress, and all interesting public documents. It is hardly necessary to add that it will also embrace within its columns the latest foreign and domestic intelligence, prices current and all other matters of proper and general interest. The Intelligencer, and a branch of the profession which he has followed for the last fifty years without intermission, warrants them better than any imported Cracker.
He is also extending his bakery to every variety of Cakes: specifications for any kind or quantity, will be supplied at short notice for Families or Parties.
P. S. Merchants and Planters can be supplied with Crackers by the single pound or barrel. Also, Hard, or Sea Bread, an excellent and cheap article for plantations, as it will keep for years in any climate.
July 10, 1888. 43-4t

Families can have any kind of cakes baked, for their own furnishing, on short notice. He will keep constantly on hand a large and fresh assortment of Candies, of his own manufacture, which he will sell low, either by wholesale or retail. He is a tolerable mechanic, working some times at the Carpenter's Blacksmith's and Shoemaker's trades, and may probably pass himself for a free man, and get work at any of those trades. He can read and write indifferently, and is remarkably intelligent. He was brought from Virginia, and probably attempt to get there or to a free State. I will give $50 if taken in Mississippi or Alabama, or the above reward out of these States, or secured so that I get him again.

Valuable Plantation FOR SALE.
THE subscriber offers for sale the tract of land on which he resides; containing Three hundred and Fifty Acres, one hundred and fifty of which are cleared, and the balance in a good state of cultivation. This farm is most desirably situated, immediately on the Tombigbee river, five miles below Columbus; and is well improved, with a good dwelling house, a fine well of delicious water, good out houses of every description, and a good orchard of Peach and Apple Trees. No plantations in the County offers a more desirable situation for a small planter than this, or is more agreeably situated as regards society, health, and convenience to market. The dwelling house is situated immediately on a beautiful bluff, commanding a fine view of the river—embracing one of the finest prospects in the world. A wood yard at this place would be found to be very profitable, and there are one hundred and fifty cords of wood already cut and at the landing. Any one who may purchase this property can be supplied with the crop of Corn and Fodder on moderate terms.

Persons wishing to purchase can learn further particulars by application to Mr. W. H. Gibbs, in Columbus, or to the subscriber, living on the premises.

Twenty-five Dollars Reward.
LOST—On the Robertson Road, leading from Columbus to Jackson, between Toomer's and the Turnpike on Norcross, a Memorandum Book, containing Bank bills to three hundred and forty dollars, one fifty dollar bill on the Tombigbee Bank, which was torn in two, and pasted together on a small piece of white paper, with two red wafers; the rest of the bills not recollected. The following is in part, a list of the notes said book contained:
One note for $1200, endorsed by S. M. Hudspeth.
1 note for $350, endorsed by John B. Smith.
1 do for $444, do do E. B. Warren & Lewis Whitehead.
1 note for $227, endorsed by same.
1 do for $400, do do Fargus McDowell.
1 do for $500, do do Boyd & Blake.
4 notes, 3 of $150, 1 of $40, 1 of $30, endorsed by P. M. West.
1 note for $100, endorsed by J. M. Evans.
3 notes, 1 of $100, 1 of $50, 1 of $16, endorsed by John Graves.
1 note for $100, endorsed by George Fitter.
1 receipt for sundry notes, amount $100, on E. H. Hard, of Carthage, Miss.; with sundry small notes, receipts and papers of importance to me. The above notes have sundry credits, amount not recollected.
The above reward will be given to any person that will present me the book and its contents. Address, Louisville, Miss. I am induced to believe that the book was picked up by the first person that past the Road, from the fact that the Road is plain, and the book very large, say 6 inches by 4. I met but two men before I missed it, I immediately returned, and overtook the last man I met, at Judge Bevel's; I made known to him my situation—he proposed that I should search him in presence of witnesses; I told him I did not think proper to do so, believing as I did, that the first man past the Road got the book, from the fact of the Road being so very plain, and from the inquiries the gentleman made of Mr. Toomer, in reference to myself—which inquiries I will hereafter make known if called on, and from the very fact of the gentleman's remarks to me on his return from Madison county, that he was sure he had picked up the book, and that a man can't believe a thing without reasons for my belief.
